FROM THE PASTORS DESK

The prayers of the Lord leading to his passion speak of “his appointed hour.” To the disciples “the appointed hour” referred to his paousia, the second coming of Christ, that is to say the full revelation of Jesus as Lord as the culmination of all time. Given the mother of James and John request for a seat at his right and left, the parousia was an earthly king. Our hope is in the parousia as a future revelation. His appointed hour referred as we know, to his passion. We too would magnify our spiritual hope by “seeing: this event as a backdrop to our own suffering. He is indeed risen. His return certain and soon. Happy Easter.
