

The Temptation of Christ by the Devil
Spanish
first half 12th century (possibly 1129-34)

In our gospel today, Jesus visits the home of Simon Peter and heals his mother-in-law. Picture the scene: after sunset, in the dark, with no electricity, the sick and mentally ill come to Jesus. They come with torches, candlelight, and lanterns. You can barely see but can hear and even smell people struggling with demons, whispering, and shouting as they are set free by the power of the Lord. Our struggles with demons in the dark are different in our home, workplace, or school, but nonetheless we too are called to rise early, before dawn even, to go to a deserted place to pray with our heavenly Father. Find that place every day. Don't go through your day without the Lord. Next week, Fr Dicya, our new parochial vicar, will write about himself.
